HERITAGE PRESERVATION FILES AND INVENTORY

Community Planning and Economic Development (CPED) is located in room #300 of the Public Service Center Building, 250 South 4th Street, and retains Landmark nominations and survey forms for properties in the city as well as inventory files for designated districts and other potentially historic properties. Some of these materials are in survey form and typically contain brief descriptions of the resource or building, an approximate date of construction, a statement of significance, and a photograph. For locally designated properties, CPED maintains records on applications that have gone before the HPC for approval, as well as minutes from HPC meetings. There is also a collection of books maintained on the history of Minneapolis.

RESEARCH AND CONTACTS

Survey and research information is available to the public during normal business hours. Those interested in researching any potential or known historic resource are encouraged to call for an appointment with CPED staff to discuss their specific needs or to view the HPC collection.

For more information or to schedule an appointment, contact HPC Committee Clerk Fatimat Porter, 612.673.3153 or

It is also significant for its association with lumber baron Anson Brooks (Criterion #2) and architects Franklin and Louis Long (Criterion #6).

SUMNER T. MCKNIGHT MANSION

Significant under Criteria #1, #2, #3, #4, and #6, the home is an intact example of the mansions that once lined Minneapolis' "Golden Mile" Park Avenue, home to some of the city's earliest, most influential and wealthiest residents and businessmen.

The John P. and Nelle Snyder Mansion is historically significant under Criterion #3 for its association with the distinctive elements of the identity of Blaisdell Avenue and the Whittier neighborhood, and Criterion #6 for its association with Minneapolis master architect Ernest Kennedy.

ARTHUR & EDITH LEE HOUSE

4600 COLUMBUS AVENUE

The Arthur and Edith Lee House is significant under Criterion #1 for its association with the significant events of these 1931 riots, as well as with broad patterns of social history, particularly in regard to African-American history in Minneapolis, race relations, and historical trends of housing discrimination.

LOCAL HISTORIC DISTRICT DESIGNATION

C. A. SMITH LUMBER HISTORIC DISTRICT

4401 AND 4400-4430 LYNDALE AVE N

DESIGNATION: JULY 01, 2016

The C.A. Smith Lumber Company and Mereen-Johnson Machine Company founders – C.A. Smith, Arno Mereen, and Charles Johnson, and under Criterion 3 for its association with the industrial nature of the Camden neighborhood throughout the late 19th and 20th centuries.

CLG GRANT

In FY 2015 the City embarked upon an effort to survey and designate properties associated with under-documented groups. Thanks to two National Park Service grants and a City match totaling $70,000, CPED made significant strides toward identifying and protecting a broader, more inclusive segment of the Mill City's heritage. A Native American context statement and reconnaissance-level survey supplement identified 24 potential historic resources and one potential historic district associated with significant aspects of our community's shared Native American heritage. CPED also completed the 254 property intensive-level survey of the Homewood Potential Historic District, begun in 2012 by the Bottineau Light Rail Transitway Section 106 Review. Draft designation studies and design guidelines for this district are currently being reviewed by the current owners of homes in this historically inclusive neighborhood, where Minneapolis' Jewish community found a haven from early twentieth century anti-Semitism. Studies and design guidelines for the Pilgrim Rest Baptist Church and the Tilsenbilt Historic District, emblematic of Minneapolis' early twentieth century African American community and mid-century housing integration, are currently under review by the State Historic Preservation Office. And in September 2016 the City designated the first of the properties in this effort, the Arthur and Edith Lee House, where one African American family successfully withstood a 1931 race riot. Contact John Smoley at 612.673.2830 or John.Smoley@minneapolismn.gov with questions.

The company's presence is the district helped pave the way for a thriving furniture industry in the area.
